

Application for
Hon. Frederick J. Scullin, Jr. Scholarship Program
2020

In December 2005, the Northern District of New York Federal Court Bar Association (“the Association”) established The Honorable Frederick J. Scullin, Jr. Scholarship Program to recognize exemplary law students who attend Albany Law School, Cornell University College of Law, and Syracuse University College of Law. In calendar year 2020, the Association will select three (3) scholars, one from each school, each of whom will receive a scholarship in the sum of $2,000. Students currently in their second year of law school are eligible to apply.

Interested students may submit their applications electronically to the Scholarship Program Chairs, Doreen A. Simmons, Esq. (dsimmons@hancocklaw.com) and Jeffrey E. Hurd, Esq. (jeff@bshlaw.us) by October 15, 2020. The Scholarship Program Chairs will interview applicants under consideration during the month of November, 2020 and will notify the selected scholars shortly thereafter. A virtual award presentation will be scheduled for some time in January.

APPLICATION
Hon. Frederick J. Scullin, Jr. Scholarship Program
2020

Name: _____

Address: _____

Telephone: _____

E-Mail: _____

Law School: _____

Anticipated Graduation Date: _____

GPA/class rank: _____

Law School Academic Awards, Honors and Extra-Curricular Activities:

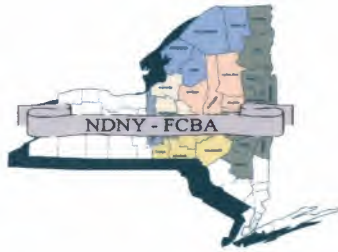

Undergraduate School: _____

Major/Date of Graduation: _____

GPA/class rank: _____

Undergraduate Awards, Honors and Extra-Curricular Activities:

Employment History:

Required submissions:

- Law School transcript (to date)
- Resume
- A personal statement of not more than 250 words stating why you are an appropriate recipient of this prestigious award and why you are interested in Federal Practice

Optional Submissions:

- A writing sample, which is not more than ten (10) pages in length
- Letter of recommendation from your Dean or Law School Professor

Application Deadline: October 15, 2020

The Scholarship Program Committee will conduct interviews during the month of November 2020 and will notify the selected scholars shortly thereafter. A virtual award presentation will be scheduled for some time in January. Interested students may submit their applications electronically to the Scholarship Program Chairs, Doreen A. Simmons, Esq., (dsimmons@hancocklaw.com) and Jeffrey E. Hurd, Esq. (jeff@bshlaw.us) by October 15, 2020.